IN-DEPTH LOOK AT THE WORLD

NEW!

THE WAR OVER WHEAT

Production: Tohubohu for ARTE

52'

How does wheat become a geopolitical weapon? This investigation documentary unravels the mechanisms of a food crisis that has Europe on edge. 3 billion people around the world consume wheat daily. Yet only a few countries produce most of it, while the rest of the world must import it. With the Kremlin's control of Ukrainian wheat exportation, the "golden oil" has now become an influential, unexpected weapon. By probing the current crisis, the film reveals the power struggles raging within this globalized market.

NEW!

PAKISTAN: ANATOMY OF A STATE

Directed by Jean-Pierre Canet

Production: Tohubohu & Slug News for France Télévisions

2x45'

Geographically and culturally remote from the Occident, Pakistan has long gone unnoticed. Yet, for the past 40 years, it has played a decisive role in the fate of Europe and the United States. Mixing archival footage with cinematographic shots of the country's landscapes and inhabitants, anonymous testimonies of jihadists with those of civilians, the film offers an unprecedented investigation that traces the ambiguous trajectory of the "land of the pure" and its relationship with the West, as terrorism is on the rise.

NEW!

JIHAD OVER EUROPE

Production: Artline Films for ARTE France

3x52'

In the last decades, Europe has been confronted with the multiplication of jihadist attacks on its territory, in almost every country - 150 attacks, more than 800 dead and nearly 5,000 injured. This in-depth and chilling investigation reveals the development and deciphers the mechanisms of this radical and ultra-violent ideology throughout Western Europe.

NOMADIC LIFE

MULTI-AWARDED

MONGOLIA, VALLEY OF THE BEARS

Production: Lato Sensu Productions for ARTE France

4K 90'

The Taiga, also known as the boreal forest, represents about 17% of the Earth's surface and has the highest density of rivers and natural springs in the world. In Mongolia, its primary forests and pure waters have kept an entire population nomadic on its lands for thousands of years. The mission of this former local hunter is now to enforce the law of environmental protection, whose objective is to put an end to illegal mining, but also to traditional practices of hunting and nomadism. A very delicate mission for a just cause to which the chief ranger is trying to rally more and more forest guards from the disgruntled local communities.

LITERATURE

THE GULAG ARCHIPELAGO

Production: Zadig productions for ARTE

52'

Only a handful of books have had a real impact on world history, and “The Gulag Archipelago” is one of them. From its publication in 1973, the book was a huge success, with translations in tens of languages. Aleksandr Solzhenitsyn defends the power of literature in the face of historical falsification. At a time when Vladimir Putin's Russia is sinking into post-truth, it is more than obvious that Solzhenitsyn's struggle has lost none of its force. Fifty years after the publication of “The Gulag Archipelago”, the questions raised by the writer resonate as never before.
